Summary: What if Valka was pregnant when she was taken by Cloudjumper? is set in the midst and after HTTYD2. My first ever fan fiction that I've published.

1. Chapter 1

This story begins when Hiccup meets Valka. Only read if you have seen HTTYD 2. My first fan fic.

The woman examined Hiccup with interest, but the. She notices the scar on his cheek.

"Hiccup" the woman exclaimed.

"Do i, do I know you?" he asks.

"No you were only a babe, But a mother never forgets" says Valka

Hiccup gasps in recognition and shock.

"Sshh, come" she says running off, Hiccup following.

"Hang on a minute, your my MOTHER! Do you grasp how insane it sounds" he exclaimed.

"Come quickly" she said, before dropping behind a rock.

"Where have you been all this time? What have you been doing?" he asked with Toothless helping him climb. "They said you were dead. Everyone said you were eaten by ..." He never finished as he gazed towards the nest, at the Bewilderbeast.

"Wow" he exclaimed, his mother in front of him. Th Bewilderbeast was a gigantic white and dark red creature, larger than the Red Death. The nest had spikes of ice, for a roof, stone with moss for a floor, a lake where the Bewilderbeast sat and a spiral of hundreds of dragons circling the King. "Do you like it?" asks Valka.

"I'm lost for words" he said

In the corner of his eye, against a stone pillar, was a white Night Fury with bright purple eyes. From underneath its wing emerged a young girl. This girl had striking green eyes like Hiccups, beautiful shiny knee length red hair falling lose against her back. She wore a skirt of dragons scales, none the same, a brown leather shirt and pants, and a underskirt of soft white wool. "Who is this?" she asked with a silky smooth voice.

"Hunter meet Hiccup, Hiccup meet Hunter. Hunter this is your older brother" stated Valka. "WHAT?" they exclaimed simultaneously. "I was pregnant when Cloudjumper took me from Berk" she said looking away from both her children.

"So this is my long lost brother" Hunter said walking towards Hiccup in a dragon like way. "And with a Night Fury too. another one to deal with" she smiled.

"And you have a White one"

"Snowflake is a Winter Fury, a female Night Fury, but the males and females are actually classified as different species. I know a lot of male and female Furies on a nearby village"

"Wow" stated Hiccup, dumbstruck at his sisters knowledge.

"May I look at him?" Hunter asked. Hiccup nodded and stepped out of the way.

"Oh he's beautiful. He twenty, so your age I'm guessing. Oh my what happened to his tail" she gasped while looking at the complicated prosthetic tail fin.

"Oh that. I found him in the woods shot down, missing a fin" he stated while looking away.

"You shot him down didn't you?" she said with a smirk.

"Yeah, but its okay though, he got me back didn't ya bud. You couldn't save all of me, he just had to make it even so" he lifted his left leg "Peg Leg!" he said with a laugh and scratched Toothless under his chin.

"So what did your gather think of your Night Fury friend?" Valka suddenly asked, facing Hiccup.

"He didn't take it very well, but then he changed, they all did. Pretty soon everyone back home had dragons of their own." he said

"If only it were possibly. Believe me I tried as well but people aren't capable of change Hiccup. Some of us are just born different" she said, not listening to Hiccup.

"Berk was a land of kill or be killed. But I believed that peace was possible. Until one night a dragon broke into our house, finding you in the cradle" she said while pointing at Hiccup. "I rushed to protect you, but what I saw was proof of everything I believed. You were playing with Cloudjumper, and his eyes weren't slits, he was having fun. Then your father came in scared Cloudjumper, and I was taken within moments. You and your father nearly died that night, all because I couldn't kill a dragon." She looked away from the two siblings.

"Its alright Mum. But honestly Berk has changed" Hiccup wanted his mother to believe.

"I will check Mum" Hunter closed her eyes. Her hair floated up and around her head and a eyry light radiated off her. She opened her eyes and everything returned to normal. "He is telling the truth Mum. Berk has changed"

"Well I have to trust you" Valka said walking to the Bewilderbeast.

"What was that?" Hiccup asked Hunter.

"Oh that. I am gifted with magic and the ability to turn into a Winter Fury at will. My magic includes fire, ice, water, earth and the ability to tell if someone is lying and more" she plainly said, then turning into a Winter Fury for proof. She looked like Snowflake but with dazzling green eyes instead. Turning back she said "Ta Da!"

"By Odin's beard that is cool!"

" So where did you find Oscura Nightra?" she asked.

"Who?"

"Toothless"

" He was helping in the dragon raids from being controlled by a evil queen, which we killed, until I shot him down and built him a tail" he answered.

"Changing Berk in the process, amazing building skills I might add" she smiled.

"Thanks"

"Come children" called Valka. They three walked towards the Bewilderbeast and Hunter bowed, along with the dragons. Hiccup stood next to Valka, gobsmacked. He heard Hunter conversing in Dragonese with the Bewilderbeast. He faced Hiccup and blew frost into his hair. "He likes ya Hiccy" Hunter said.

"Wow and never call me that again!"

"So you must be hungry" asked Valka

"Yeah I could eat"

"Good its feeding time" Valka led Hiccup away from the King and out of the nest.

:::::::::::::::::: new chapter

"I thought we were going to eat" Hiccup called to his Mum and sister.

"Oh, we are big bro" Hunter was balanced on Snowflakes back and she smiled, as Valka signalled them to stop.

Suddenly from below them the King Bewilderbeast came bursting threw the ocean surface, then thousands of fish were falling from the skies. Hiccup was astounded as Valka just laughed. He gestured for Toothless to eat as he dived down until his mouth was stuffed with fish. Hunter looked at Toothless and laughed as she caught a fish and bit into it raw. "Ewwwww!" exclaimed Hiccup. "What? Half dragon remember" she said before downing the fish, leaving Hiccup disgusted. "Come on" she called while flying towards an island with Valka.

Hiccup was showing the girls his map, but then Valka started to draw her own in the snow, but a much larger version of his own small local map. Hunter was intrigued by her brothers map and she added the Ice Sanctuary, and a village called Dreycon, the home of the Furies. "You would love Dreycon. Everyone rides Furies and its perfect for them. You should go one day and meet my friends. Sadly they are investigating Drago and his plans at the moment" she shrugged after finishing her sentence. The three flew towards a cliff.

At the cliff is a stream of winds that go upwards. The three balance upon the dragons as they hover in the winds. Valka sighed and said"When I'm up here I don't even feel the cold I just feel", "Free" finished Hiccup. "This is what it is to be a dragon Hiccup" she said with a smile. "No it isn't. You don't have to put in all the effort to stay in the air Mum!" called Hunter. "You know Mum its all well and good to call yourself a dragon but can you fly" he said before leaping off Toothless. Valka leaned forward in worry but Hunter just smiled happily as she knew what Hiccup was doing.

Then Hiccup activated his "wings" and came soaring upwards as the wind caught them. He flipped onto his back and looked around but he didn't see his sister or mother. But the they appeared next to him upon Cloud Jumper and Snowflake, Toothless flying behind him, ready to catch him. Hiccup turns back onto his stomach, but sees an approaching island that he would crash into. Toothless charges to catch him, only just getting him as they crash in the snow.

Hiccup popped out of the snow which covered him "We almost had it this time!" he exclaimed as the girls landed and ran to him. Valka lifted up his "wings" and examined them while Hunter just stood there smirking. "You do that a lot don't you?" she asked. "Of course. You know me to well for a girl I just met" he stated.

Valka touched Hiccups cheek and he leaned into it. "Together we can save and free dragons Hiccup. Us three can do it" said Valka.

"That sounds amazing, but we need to talk to Drago"

"What, there is no talking to Drago. Now come on we must be getting back" she said noticing that the Sun was heading down, but slowly.

Hunter just looked at Hiccup curiously.

::::::::::::

"Well bud, we can't just wait for Drago to attack this place. Lets go" he said to Toothless, before his mouth was covered by a large, beefy hand.

"Calm Toothless. Come on son, we're getting you out" said Stoick.

"We? How did you get in here?"

"All clear" called Gobber, his head sticking out from one of the tunnels.

"Dad there is something you need to know" Hiccup said while being pulled by Stoick.

"Add it to the pile"

"Well this is more of the earth shattering variety" Hiccup started as they approached a halt. Hiccup, Stoick and Gobber saw Hunter but she wore a small mask, with a bow drawn and ready to fire. "Who are you and why are you here?" she asked, her voice surprisingly calm.

"Shouldn't you already know that?" asked Hiccup while getting strange looks from Stoick and Gobber.

"Shouldn't waste my energy now should I? And answer my questions!"

"I am Gobber the Belch, the Berkian blacksmith. This is our chief Stoick the Vast and his son Hiccup, who I guess ya already know laddie" said Gobber "We mean no harm" he added for safety.

"You don't want to lose another limb, do ya?" she said "My name's Hunter. I live here with my mother"

"Really. Wheres ya mother from?" Gobber asked actually interested.

"Not sure. I think she's from Berk" but she knew the truth.

"Really then who is ya mother?"

"I'll see if she wants to meet ya. Hang on a moment please" she turned and walked into the cave.

"She's pretty, but there I something different about her" said Gobber.

"She was raised with dragons I'm guessing, so of course she's different" said Stoick.

Hunter came back with her bow strapped across her back, "Sorry my Mum doesn't want ta see ya just yet"

"Over my dead body" said Stoick trying to walk past the girl. Only he was pushed back with two fingers and a lot of power. "Stop" Hunter said sternly.

"Why doesn't she want to see them?" Hiccup asked Hunter.

"Remember" she said gesturing towards everything. Hiccup nodded his small understanding.

"Hunter, let them pass" called Valka, her voice a bit muffled.

" Stay behind me" said Hunter to the men. They walked into a cave, and Stoick saw Valka. His eyes went wide.

"I know what your gonna say, Stoick. How could I have done this? Stayed away for all these years why didn't i come back to you, to our son? Well what sign did I have that you could change, any of you. I pleaded for peace but you never listened" Valka said, her voice sad. Stoick had been walking towards her and she had been walking backwards.

"Wait this is your mother?" asked Gobber, receiving a nod from Hunter.

"So you two are brother and sister?" He received two nods this time.

"She was pregnant with me when she was taken by Cloudjumper, her dragon" said Hunter, looking away from her parents as she knew what was going to happen.

"Stop being so stoic Stoick! Scream, shout, say something!" Yelled Valka.

"You're as beautiful as the day I lost you" he breathed before hiving his long lost wife a long lost kiss.

::::::::::::

"So Hunter how did ya get your name?" asked Gobber while Stoick, Valka and Hiccup were cooking, and Hunter was reading a music sheet.

"Oh, Mum thought I was a boy when I was born amd I was and still am really curious so ,Hunter" she said looking at the two limbed smith. "Plus I hunt my own food"

"You wouldn't even recognise it Mum. Where we used to kill dragons we train them, we have stables and food stations we even fix dragon teeth" said Hiccup.

"Slow down bro its a lot to take in" said Hunter.

Stoick went to take the fish sticks they made off of Valka but she dropped them "Sorry I'm a little out of practice, that one finds her own food" she said gesturing towards Hunter.

"Well ya know tha I didn't marry ya for ya cooking" said Stoick.

"I hope not. Her meatballs could kill more dragons than a battle axe.

I still have a few rolling around in here" said Gobber to Hunter and Grump, while patting his stomach.

"Good thing I have dragon taste" muttered Hunter.

Gobber tried a fish stick, hated it so fed them all to Grump. Toothless begged Cloudjumper for some fish. Cloud Jumper regurgitated some for Toothless, who slurped it all up.

Hunter decided to play her guitar, and she played a song that Valka and Stoick called their song.

Hunter:

I'll swim and sail on savage seas,

With ne'er a fear of drowning.

And gladly ride the waves of life

If you would marry me

Her voice was beautiful, all the dragons watched her singing intently.

Hunter:

No scorching sun

Nor freezing cold

Gobber:

Can stop me on my journey!

Hunter:

If you would promise me your heart

Stoick:

And love me for eternity

Valka:

My dearest one my darling dear

Your mighty words astound me

But i have no use of mighty deeds

When I feel you arms around me

Stoick:

But i would bring you rings of gold

I'd even sing you poetry

And i would keep you from all harm

If you would stay beside me

Valka:

I have no use for rings of gold

I care not for your poetry

I only want your hand to hold

Stoick:

I only want you near me

Both:

To love

To kiss

To sweetly hold

For the dancing and the dreaming

I'll swim and sail on savage seas

With ne'er fear of drowning if you would marry me!

They all laughed and cheered. Stoick asked Valka to be his wife again, and she said yes. But then Hunter turns her head towards the opening, where dragons begin to flee. "Mum, nononononono! He's here!" she called worriedly.

"Who?" asked Stoick.

"Drago" she stated as she strapped on a sword, her mask, and a necklace with a radiating green crystal. She stood and closed her eyes again, the eyry light returning. When she opened them she was pale and looked very worried. "He has a Bewilderbeast as well" she said, but then her pupils went to slits and she went to fly on Snowflake, when Gobber slapped her "You alright lassie?"

"I'm fine but our Alpha is calling me. I have to go. Good luck" she said before running onto Snowflake and flying off. "We must protect the dragons" said Valka, breaking everyone from their confusion about what the girl said. "Ay, come on son" said Stoick as they flew off.

:::::::new chapter

Astrid was with Fishlegs and Meatlug in one of the traps. "Alright lets go" she said as she climbed on behind Fishlegs. "3,2,1 go!" they exploded out to hear Tuffnut say "SURPRISE!" and Drago's anger. She spots Eret and Stormfly quickly "You really are full of surprises, lets go" she said and jumped onto Stormfly.

They flew around destroying traps and freeing dragons in traps. "Watch out for the ice" Astrid said to Eret as ice began falling. "LOOK OUT!" , but the the ice was destroyed and Hiccup, Gobber and Stoick joined the fight upon Toothless, Grump amd Skullcrusher. "Dragon master" said Drago angrily.

"Welcome aboard dragon rider" Hiccup said to Eret.

"Thanks. I think"

"Where have you been?" Astrid asked.

"Meeting my sister and mother" he said while pointing out Hunter and then Valka on Cloud Jumper with the Bewilderbeast behind her.

"Show them what you got bud!" Hiccup said to Toothless. Toothless blasted a trap to free a Hideous Zippleback. "Yeah baby!" Meanwhile Hunter and Snowflake were fighting hard and strong, being controlled by Valka and the Alpha. Everything they did was synchronised and useful, not one mistake. Valka was saving a dragon when she and Cloudjumper were shot down by a bola. Valka screamed as the fell, not sure how to escape. Unfortunately, they landed directly in front of Drago.

As the two crashed, Valka, still in her gear, was thrown off of Cloudjumper's back, landing on the ice. She was not hurt and stood up quickly. Spotting Drago she sprints to him and attacks "You cannot take our dragons. They are controlled by the Alpha" Little did she know that Hunter was warily watching and listening. "Good thing I bought a challenger" Drago stated before facing the ocean and screaming wildly, waving his staff.

Suddenly the boats start to wobble and drift on the seas, chains clanking. Then out of the water a grey and red Bewilderbeast appeared, pushing the boats away from him. He challenged the current Alpha. 'No" breathed Valka "NO" she started to attack Drago angrily. He put up a fight and knocked her over quickly, she flied back, and landed sprawled on her back.

Drago saw his chance to reveal her identity. He stepped heavily on her chest, Valka trying to push his foot off herself. He used his pointed staff to pry her mask, revealing her identity and face. "Argh!" he bellowed as he lowered his staff in her face, before being knocked backwards to the ground. He stood up to see Stoick the Vast, whom he believed was dead, helping Valka up, she herself had removed her armour. "You think you can stop them?" Stoick asked while gesturing to the Bewilderbeast's. "I'll do my best. Come on Cloudjumper!" she said while freeing her dragon.

"I saw you burn!" exclaimed Drago while facing Stoick. They both charged and their weapons collided. "It takes more than a little fire to kill me!" They continued to fight. Gobber throwing his hammer to help Stoick.

Hunter was now free of the Alphas control, but still she and Snowflake were helping as much as they possibly could. She had shifted into her White Fury form as she could do more damage to Drago's armada. She watched her Mum and Drago fight, and Stoick joining but had to turn away.

Hiccup and his friends were also assisting the dragons. Astrid, while assisting Eret was looking for Hunter but she saw 2 white Night Furies instead of 1. "What?" she said aloud. Eret looked at her weirdly, she just shrugged it off. But when she looked back, she saw only 1 white Night Fury, and Hunter on top of it. 'How is this happening?' she wondered.

"HICCUP!" Hunter called. Hiccup rushed on Toothless and was by her side in seconds. "Mum is trying to stop the Alpha's, it's impossible for her to do it. Only one Bewilderbeast can win, and only one will, she cannot stop that. Please get her out of there" she said before flying off. Before Hiccup could reach Valka, the Alpha was stabbed in the belly by the evil Bewilderbeast. He let out his final roar, before he stopped moving entirely. "NO" everyone screamed collectively.

"It is over. We have won" Drago declared as Hiccup and Hunter landed on their dragons. Hunter stood her ground as Snowflake was taken by the Alpha, but Toothless wasn't. She knew it was useless to try and free her dragon, and that she should use her energy to protect herself.

"So this is the Dragon Conqueror. Son of Stoick the Vast. What shame he must feel. And the magic dragon girl, oh what a combination" Drago exclaimed.

"All of this destruction and for what? To be unstoppable? To rule the world?" Hiccup questioned. "Dragons are kind, loyal, amazing creatures that can bring people together"

"Or tear them apart" Drago removed his prosthetic arm while saying it.

"Drago, please stop this madness. You do not need dragons to control other dragons. You want them to control people, and get rid of those that won't follow you" Hunter said, with not one falter.

While the three were arguing, all the other riders, and Stoick and Gobber on the ground. Had stopped fighting, and were watching them closely. Valka and Stoick were worried for the children's safety, Gobber too. The teens, except for Astrid and Eret, were wondering whop this 'magic dragon girl' was.

"Clever girl. But what can you do to stop me?" he questioned rhetorically.

With that statement he pointed at Toothless. The new Alpha saw his directions and started to take Toothless. Hunter stood there, closing her eyes, and the eyry light returned, only stronger. But Toothless was squirming, worrying Hiccup, until Hunter collapsed on the floor, gasping for breath. "Toothless?" Hiccup asked as his dragon walked towards him, with not a hint of recognition. "Toothless stop!"

"SON!" Stoick called, realising what was about to happen

"Dad stop!"

Toothless was preparing to blast, when Hunter stood up and started running, so fast she was just a blur. She pushed Hiccup and Stoick away with a split second to spare. But she was hit squarely over her heart by Toothless's plasma blast, but didn't even flinch.

Everyone was surprised, all thinking 'How did she not just die?' all except Valka. Toothless looked outraged, just as Drago. He fired again and his blast was deflected by fire that sprung from her hand.

"Oscura Nightera, please come back to us. Be released from the Alphas call" Hunter said in Dragonese, scaring almost everyone.

She kept talking to Toothless, trying to reel him into her voice. "Mum, it's to strong it's not working!" she called out frustrated. All of the dragon rider had landed, rushing over to Hiccup and Stoick. "Try, don't give up!" Valka replied hopefully.

Toothless and Hunter had started to circle each other, "Mum, I need to switch, I've been challenged" Hunter said without taking her gaze of off Toothless. "Only when necessary" Valka replied. "Switch?" Stoick questioned. "You'll see"

3. the Battle Part 2: Chapter 3

Toothless pounced onto Hunter, only Hunter swivelled out of the way in a flash. She continued to chant in Dragonese, only sounding like grunts and roars to the others. Hunter filled her hand with blue fire, gently waving it to attract Toothless and calm him, only the Alpha's control was too deep. "I have no choice but to switch" Hunter said to Valka, who nodded, before fire and water enveloped her to reveal a White Fury, her other form. Everyone but Hiccup and Valka looked gobsmacked.

"WHAT IN THE NAME OF ODIN'S BEARD?!' Gobber yelled, the only one that found words.

Hunter roared and fired at Toothless, but didn't hit him. He fired back, desperately trying to hit his opponent. Hunter switched into her human form to put up a shield around her family and the others, just as they were about to come forward and help her. She switched into her Fury form again, and started to wrestle with Toothless. They separated and roared at each other, before the Alpha fired at her. He froze her tail and she couldn't get away in time. She was enveloped in ice, no one sure of what to do. When suddenly the ice was blasted apart, and a new Night Fury came down, landing next to where Hunter now lay, free of the ice. A rider wearing a mask leaped of off the Night fury, and rushed to Hunter, who was now human again. He helped her up and gave her a quick hug, before turning to his Fury and telling him to leave and go to Dreycon, the village that Hunter talked about.

"Go" he said to Hunter, who nodded and ran towards Toothless, while the masked rider ran towards the others, not removing his mask. Hunter talked to Toothless again, with her eyes closed and the eyry light. Her words turned into chanting, as her hair flapped away from her face. Drago was suddenly pushed away by a strong force, but he got up and ran towards the bad Alpha. "Take her too!" he commanded. Hunters chanting got louder and louder, until it seemed impossibly loud. Toothless's pupils started to grow bigger, the Alpha's control was weakening. But the Alpha focused his control on Hunter instead. She got weaker and weaker, before collapsing to the ground in screams, horribly, painful screams. Toothless was fine now, worried but fine. He saw the struggling girl and tried to help, but once again he, and the other dragons were taken by the Alpha.

The shield keeping the others back disappeared, and Valka and the masked man sprinted towards Hunter, holding her down to stop her from leaving. Soon she stopped moving completely, not making a sound. "Hunter" Valka said while checking her pulse. "She's ok" she said with relief. All the others came rushing over. "Is she" Stoick asked, "She's alive" said the masked man, not looking at Stoick. "Stoick, Gobber help me go and get something for her" Valka said, "Watch her" she added while pointing at the masked man before running off.

"What happened?" Hiccup asked. "The new Alpha tried to control her, like he did with the Night Fury. She fought back, as she has her human half, not full dragon" the man stated while moving Hunter's head into his lap. "I am so confused" Snotlout said 'Who is this girl?"

"This is my sister Hunter, she is half dragon. The other lady is my Mother, and you are?"

"My name is Hagen, I am the son of Dreycon's chief. Dreycon is a nearby village that has made peace with dragons, and we have many Furies, winter and Night" said the masked man.

"So let's get this straight. Hiccup has a sister and his mother is alive?" Fishlegs asked.

"Yes" Hunter said weakly. "Hey Hagen"

"So you are the magic dragon girl with the fire hair?" asked Eret.

Hunter nodded to Eret, confirming his suspicions. "Are you alright Hunt?" asked Hagen

"I'm fine. Just tired"

"Mum went to get you something with Dad and Gobber" Hiccup told her, just as the three came running out of the empty Sanctuary. Valka had a tea in her hands for her daughter to drink. Hunter drank it gratefully and said "Drago is heading towards Berk. We have to stop him"

"Do you want me to go to Dreycon and get help?" Hagen asked.

"No, that will waste time" Hunter shakily stood up, with Hagen's help. She called a high pitch call, and within seconds some baby nadders were next to them. "I can carry 3 of you, the rest will take the Nadders" she said before switching to her dragon form.

Away to Berk they goâ€¦

Thanks for reading! I still suck at writing so sorry for the bad action scenes.

Also Merry Christmas!

4. Berk: Chapter 4

Thanks to everyone who has read this story. Please review to give me some pointers. I hope my grammar has improved. I don't own HTTYD. All rights belong to Dreamworks and Cressida Cowell.

Hunter had Valka, Stoick and Gobber riding on her. They were light to her in her Fury form. Astrid, Hagen, Hiccup, Eret, Snotlout, Ruffnut, Tuffnut and Fishlegs were all riding baby Nadders, Hagen helped calm them. They were currently flying through an ice maze.

"I don't wanna die!" yelled Fishlegs.

"We can't fly these things!" Tuffnut exclaimed.

"Chill, I've done this millions of times" Hagen said calmly, earning a smile from Valka.

"Won't the Bewilderbeast just take control of these guys to?" Astrid asked.

"They're babies they don't listen to anyone" Hagen stated.

"Someone might suggest this is purely insane!" Gobber called.

'Well it's a good thing that she never listens" Valka said looking at Hunter, whom she was riding.

They were approaching Berk at a surprisingly fast rate. "Oh no" said Hiccup looking at Berk. Ice was everywhere, sticking out of buildings and the ground. One of the statues was completely destroyed, blown to pieces. The people had no dragons with them, all huddled together in fear, but luckily with no deaths.

Hunter dropped her riders off to help the others, and Hiccup hopped on top of her. She flew him to Toothless and Drago, while the others launched sheep to distract the Alpha and checked on the villagers. Fishlegs blew the horn for the dragon race, but barely escaped the alpha's following ice blast "I'm okay!"

"You certainly are hard to get rid of, I'll say that" Drago said to Hiccup.

"Toothless? Hey it's me bud. It's m, it's me I'm right here bud. Come back to me" Hiccup said to his dragon when they were in front of them. His arm was outstretched to touch him.

"Hah hah hah ha, he's not yours anymore, he belongs to the Alpha. But please great dragon master try to take him. He will not miss another time." Drago said, slightly sarcastically.

"Toothless I know you would never hurt her, you would never hurt me. They made you do it"

Toothless started to shake, his pupils got a bit less slitted. His vision was clearing, he could start to see Hiccup, his rider. Hiccup touched his head, and Toothless recognised him and could see his face. He crooned softly, his pupils large.

"How are you doing that?" asked Drago, confused.

"Please you are my best friend bud. My best friend"

The Alpha saw what Hiccup was trying to do, and strengthened the control on Toothless. His eyes returned to slits. But Toothless fought, and lost the Alphas control.

"That a boy that's it, I'm here!"

"ENOUGH!" screamed Drago, slamming his staff into the air. Toothless caught it in his mouth, and flipped Drago off. He started to fall and Hunter flicked Hiccup of her back and onto Toothless's. Hiccup grabbed onto Toothless's saddle and climbed on, just missing the ground. Hunter meanwhile flew to the ground next to Astrid and switched, much to the villager's surprise.

"GO HICCUP!" she yelled in support as he flew over them.

"TAKE EM, DOWN BABE!" Astrid yelled as well. Hunter smiled knowing that her brother had a fantastic girlfriend.

"Go get em" Valka said while clutching Stoick's beefy arm.

Hiccup noticed Toothless struggle to stay out of the Alpha's control. Hiccup grabbed a piece of a red flag. "Do you trust me bud?" he asked. Toothless crooned gently as Hiccup tied it around his dragons head.

"You and me, as one"

6. Ice: Chapter 5

HI!

I am going to attempt to use characters P.O.V's in this chapter. Please review and tell me if I completely failed my attempt! Oh and I am still working on my many grammar problems.

Enjoy!

Hiccup P.O.V

I am currently flying on Toothless. I had to blindfold him so he doesn't get taken by the Alpha again. We are one, and we will win as one. I look below and see my sister, Mum, girlfriend and everyone else supporting me. Hunter steps forward and sends strings of fire into the sea of controlled dragons to keep them distracted, my guess is that they can't touch her fire this time. Hagen just stands there in his mask, no of us no anything other than where he is from and he knows Hunter. Suddenly I hear Hunter chant in Dragonese, her voice projecting to Toothless.

"Oscura Nightera, protect him. To win he must be challenged and the human defeated. Stay with us"

I wonder what she is saying. I hear Toothless croon which sounds a bit like a response to her statement. She nods and walks next to Astrid, who is watching me carefully.

We speed over the village towards Drago. I lean forward a bit more.

"NOW!"

Toothless hears my warning and he flips, me falling off and activating my flight suit. Drago looks up to see the red strip of material falling off an upside down Toothless. He laughs thinking that he's won. Then I come soaring over him releasing a Zippleback gas bomb next to him, which explodes and sends him flying, staff out of his hands. I look forward to see the Alpha's tail in my way.

"TOOTHLESS!"

He comes rushing to me and I clutch his saddle, climbing on quickly.

"Come on buddy" I say.

We make it but barely.

"Yes, we did it"

We flip over and land next to Drago. I take out Inferno and throw it next to Drago, it hits his extended hand and burns him.

"It's all over now" I say, bending forward to tuck in my 'wings'. I hear him chuckle slightly.

"No it's not" he says evilly.

I turn around to see the Alpha glaring at me, Hunter trying to distract him with her fire. Oh no, I think as he prepares to blast.

Next thing I know Toothless is crouching over me, and we arte encased in ice.

Hunter P.O.V

Hiccup ad Toothless are encased in ice, Drago nearby smiling happily.

"Oscura don't give up. It is time to challenge him" I say telepathically to Toothless.

Mum rushes forward and bangs on the ice in a feeble attempt to free them.

"Mum move!" I call, she listens and runs to me and Astrid, who looks stunned.

I make a purple plasma blast in my hands, and send to flying towards the ice encaging my brother. The ice blows into a million pieces on impact to reveal a perfectly safe Hiccup and a Night Fury glowing blue.

Toothless roars in challenge. HE DID IT! He is challenging the Alpha. He jumps onto a spike of ice and hits the Alpha with a plasma blast, before it can fire at him.

Mum runs to Hiccup to check if he's okay. He looks fine to me, but Mum still checks on him. She will probably cook some soup to make him better, but he hates her cooking. I am so lucky that I have dragon blood and can tolerate almost any food.

Toothless keeps firing at the Alpha, but when the Alpha hits the ice spike with his tusk Toothless flaps to Hiccup and covers him protectively.

"He's challenging the Alpha!" I hear Hiccup exclaim.

"To protect you!" Mum finishes. It's Toothless's job. It is fated that every Night and Winter Fury has a human partner and that they must protect each other. Hiccup is his fated partner, which is why he came to berk, to find his partner, and why he stayed.

I notice that the Alpha has forgotten about his captured dragons, and they became loose of their control. I drop the walls of fire I put up and they fly to the side Toothless is on, standing with him proudly. Hiccup sits on Toothless and flies to the front of the dragons.

"You see, this is what it is to earn a dragons loyalty (he has no clue) let this end now!" Hiccup calls to Drago who is now on the Alpha.

"Never come on!" he says to Hiccup and the Alpha.

Toothless signals the dragons to fire, and they all let loose. Thousands of fireballs hit the Alpha, causing Drago to hide. Toothless just sits at the front proudly, but when the dragons stop, he prepares for a huge blast.

He fires, and the Alpha's tusk falls off, landing loudly on the ground. The Alpha roared in pain, before retreating into the ocean. Toothless had one, he was now the Alpha. All the other dragons land and the villagers cheer happily, even with their destroyed home. People run towards their dragons, except for Hagen and Eret. I walk to Hagen who removes his mask and give him a hug. He lifts me up and gives me a quick kiss which no one sees, before giving me a necklace. On the necklace is my engagement ring. Hagen and I have been secretly engaged for 3 months and our wedding is soon, but I still have to tell my family.

"Great job Hunt. I love you" He says smiling.

"Love you to" I reply before I am buried under a certain Winter Fury, Snowflake. Next to Hagen his Night Fury Nightchaser lands.

Hiccup P.O.V

I see Hunter and Hagen hug, and he gives her a necklace. Why? I wonder. I also see Astrid and Stormfly, Mum and Cloudjumper, Dad and Skullcrusher along with everyone else and their dragons. Mum and Dad walk over to me and hug me. All the others come over too. I kiss Astrid, to my Mother's surprise but delight.

I see Eret and a navy blue Deadly Nadder bonding, which is quick.

"Dad do you know how long the village will take to fix" I say, knowing it will take a while.

"I can get helpers from Dreycon if you want. We have lots of supplies you can have" Hagen offers and Hunter nods.

"Thank you for the offer but I will need to speak with the Chief or Heir about it" Dad replies.

Hunter laughs and Hagen chuckles "I am the Heir of Dreycon sir"

"Oh, well thank you"

"I'll send for resources" Hunter says pulling some paper out of her pocket and a pencil. She sits down and begins to write. Hagen smiles at her, and now I notice that he doesn't have his mask on.

He has short light brown hair and brown eyes with rings of blue. He is very handsome and looks tough, though he also looks shy. Weird combination I know.

Hunter finishes her letter and calls for a Terror, the call is so realistic, but then I remember she is half dragon. The Terror flies of with the letter and Hunter returns to Hagen's side. I wonder if they are together. The dragons suddenly all bow to Toothless, and Hunter joins them. Toothless stands on two legs and looks on proudly. The all the dragons fire into the sky, illuminating the clouds.

It's weird to think about what has changed. I now have a mother and a sister, they are more Night Furies and Toothless is an Alpha. It is all so amazing.

THIS IS NOT THE END! I am continuing the story! I want it to be much longer.

Please review.

7. Secret: Chapter 6

Hiccup P.O.V

I am currently in the Great Hall eating dinner, along with everyone else. Today we defeated Drago, another enemy, and it was tough.

"So how long will the reconstruction of the village take?" Astrid asks my father.

"A few weeks probably, but then again we do have the dragons help" Dad says.

"It is weird to be back" Mum admits. Dad gives her a supportive hug, which she accepts.

"I wonder about Dreycon, what type of village is it?" Fishlegs questions "And other Night Furies" Fishlegs spent almost an hour comparing Toothless, Snowflake and Nightchaser, also Hunter for a bit. He was so excited that he fainted multiple times.

"Fishlegs Dreycon is a very large Viking village. We all have dragons, mostly Night and Winter Furies, but other dragons are used and trained there. From the ages of 10 to 17 we go to school in Learners Bay, an island, to learn history, how to fight, train dragons and other things. We don't really trade as we have all the supplies we need" Hagen told Fishlegs.

"It's a beautiful village. The island have two forests surrounding the village. One gives us wood and supplies, while the other is left alone, but were we hang out with our friends. There are 3 waterfalls and 2 rivers and its warmer, but it still gets snow" Hunter supplied.

A Terrible Terror flew through the door of the Great Hall, with two letters in its talons. It landed on the table in front of Hunter. Hunter takes the letters and glances at who they are addressed to.

"Hiccup this is for you and Dad" she told me passing me one.

She pockets the other. Hagen stares at her like _'what_?', and she replies like_ 'Later'. _Something is going on and I can tell.

"Ah they will be here around 10 in the morn tomorrow and will bring dragons and supplies to help us" Dad says happily.

We all smile gratefully. Temporary homes have been set up for everyone, either in the Great Hall or in the few buildings still standing, except for the forge.

"We are going to feed our dragons" Hunter says as she and Hagen stand to leave. They walk out together in a quiet conversation. I look at Astrid.

"Do think they are together?" she asks me quietly so no one else can hear.

I nod and whisper "yeah".

As others start to leave for bed, Astrid and I decide to go for a walk through the forest, without Toothless and Stormfly.

"I haven't asked, what happened to you milady?" I ask, wanting to know what she did while I met my mother and sister.

"Well while your father and Gobber went to get you we sat on an iceberg, but we left as we thought they were captured, kidnapped Eret, went to Drago's camp, got captured, escaped then joined the battle and met up with you" she said.

I just stared at her. She laughed and said "It's all true, ask the others"

"Anyway, you mother is alive and you have a sister who can turn into a dragon, talk about surprises" she said, trying to change the conversation.

"Yeah it was a surprise" I admit, before she shushes me.

She walks forward cautiously, so I follow, not making a sound. Soon we she a clearing, we I spot Hagen and my sister sitting, and their dragons playing in the distance. They are talking, but I can't hear them, so we move closer, but stay out of sight.

"Here's a letter from your father" Hunter says while handing him the letter. He takes it and opens it.

"Dear Hagen, your mother and I have organised the wedding for you. Atalla is doing the clothes. Your friends are all doing they whole thing. The village is so excited. It is scheduled for a week after the others arrive to help rebuild Berk. We still need her parent's blessings but I am sure we will get them. Also your friends will be coming to help rebuild the villager. See you soon love your father" Hagen reads.

"So it really happening" I hear my sister say.

"Yep, in a week we are getting married" I gasp, then quickly cover my mouth, thankfully they don't notice.

Astrid looks at me, confused as I am. We both walk back to the village in silence.

"Don't tell anyone" I say. She nods and kisses me goodnight, and we go our separate ways.

Hunter P.O.V

"Yep, in a week we are getting married" Hagen says, looking down fondly at me.

I hear a quiet gasp an know it's my brother and Astrid, they cannot suspect me knowing so I stay still.

"I wonder what my dress will look like" I say as he puts an arm around my shoulders.

"It will be beautiful and so will you" he says and then kisses me. He stands up and holds his hand out. He pulls me up.

"Let's dance" he says

"What song?" I ask.

"You choose"

"Okay" I ponder over they songs I know, and it's a lot, when I choose one.

Hunter:
>Take my hand, take a breath
Pull me close and take one step

>Keep your eyes locked on mine
And let the music be your guide

Hagen:
>Won't you promise me?
(Now won't you promise me >that you'll never forget?)
We'll keep dancing
>(To keep dancing)

[Both] Wherever we go next

It's like catching lightning, the chances of finding >someone like you
it's one in a million, the chances of feeling

>the way we do

And with every step together
>We just keep on getting better
[Hunter] So can I have this dance?

>(Can I have this dance?)
Can I have this dance?

Hagen:
>Take my hand, I'll take the lead
And every turn will be safe with me
>Don't be afraid, afraid to fall
You know I'll catch you through it all

And you can't keep us apart
>[Hunter] Even a thousand miles can't keep us apart
Cause my heart is wherever you are

It's like catching lightning, the chances of finding
>Someone like you
It's one in a million, the chances of feeling

>The way we do

And with every step together
>We just keep on getting better
So can I have this dance?
>(Can I have this dance?)
Can I have this dance?

[Hunter] Oh, no mountain's too high and no ocean's too wide
>Cause together or not, our dance won't stop
Let it rain, let it pour, what we have is worth fighting for
>You know I believe that we were meant to be! Oh!

It's like catching lightning, the chances of finding
>Someone like you
It's one in a million, the chances of feeling

>The way we do

And with every step together
>We just keep on getting better
So can I have this dance?
>(Can I have this dance?)
Can I have this dance?
>Can I have this dance?
Can I have this dance?

We finish singing and dancing, facing each other. He leans forward and kisses me, I feel on top of the world.

"Great choice" he says as we separate and begin to head back.

Now it's time to talk to my brother.

Thanks for reading! I am trying to upload as many chapters as possible before I go to Singapore. I have had a bad day so writing has helped calm me so know I have a lot of chapters to edit and upload. **

I don't own HTTYD.

8. Guests: Chapter 7

Hello. Yes I know I haven't updated in a while, but my sister returned from Melbourne, my Mum's second mother died, and I have been really sick so I couldn't write. I am really sorry! I will write a few chapters today. Oh and I don't own HTTYD.

Hiccup P.O.V

Today we are expecting help from Dreycon, but all I can think about is what Astrid and I heard last night. My sister is engaged? She is younger than me by a year yet she is getting married? I can tell that no one else knows, but I hope she doesn't know that I know.

I walk into the Great Hall for breakfast when Hunter pulls me aside.

"If you tell anyone about what you and Astrid heard last night you are in danger. No one else knows and I have to figure out how to tell them, so please stay out of it" she begs.

"Ok I promise I won't tell anyone"

She smiles and we walk to our parents to eat. Hagen, Gobber and the others join us after we sat down. I see Eret come and sit next to me.

"I've bonded with a dragon. His name is Axel" he states.

"Awesome mate. Congrats" I say, excited that he did it all alone.

"So are you joining the village?" Astrid asks.

"I guess so"

"Oh Astrid we are not allowed to tell anyone about what we heard last night" I tell her, she nods.

"What?" Eret asks.

"Nothing" I say hastily.

Hunter looks towards the door and closes her eyes, that weird light returning. When she opens them she smiles.

"They're here" she says before sprinting outside in a blur, to Hagen's amusement.

Hunter P.O.V

I dash outside to see 1 Winter Fury and 4 Night Furies landing with a giant crate between them, attached to them by rope. 5 riders hop off their dragons and stretch.

"Hunter!" my best friend Atalla calls, running to meet me.

"Atalla!" I sprint harder and tackle her into a bone crushing hug.

"Oh it's so good to see you!" she exclaims.

Atalla has shoulder length dark brown hair and dark green eyes. She has lots of freckles on her face and smiles almost constantly. She's wearing a purple short sleeve top with a light brown fur vest, and a leather skirt with purple leggings. She is slighter shorter than me. Her dragon is called Crystal.

"Hunter!" Damon, Alvis, Egad and Edgar rush to give me hugs.

Damon has strawberry blonde short hair and grey eyes and rides Blackwood, Alvis has black hair and hazel eyes and rides Fearless, Egad and Edgar, the twins, both have auburn hair and blue eyes and ride Burn and Spark. They tackle me in hugs. They are all 20, but Atalla is 19 like me.

I see Hagen walk out of the Great Hall with my parents, Gobber, Eret, Hiccup and his friends. Hagen runs forward and greet his mates and Atalla, while the others take their time.

"Oh I am so excited for next week! The dress is done- and" Atalla shrieks but I stop her.

"No one knows yet and no one will know yet, so please keep quite about it" I ask her. Hagen says the same thing to the boys.

"So these are our helpers" Dad bellows. They guys and Atalla bow or curtsy to Stoick.

"I am chief Stoick the 'Vast' Haddock, this is my wife Valka, my son Hiccup, Gobber our blacksmith, Astrid, Eret, Tuffnut, Ruffnut, Snotlout, Fishlegs and my daughter Hunter, whom I guess you know already" he says.

"WHAT?" they all exclaim.

"Hunt this is your Dad?! And you have a brother?!" Atalla screams.

"CALM DOWN! Yes this is my Dad and brother" I say.

"Well this is weird" Damon mumbles.

"Wait, so next week they" Alvis starts but Hagen nudges him to shut up.

"What?" Valka asks.

"Next week our chief has invited you to come to our village for a special event" Hagen states. He gestured to the group that was here to say that they all had been invited.

I notice that Hiccup and Astrid glance at each other nervously.

"We would love to come" Dad says with a smile. Well this is a tad easier to get them to come.

"I am Atalla, this is Damon, Alvis, Egad and Edgar. These are the supplies we bought (she gestures to the giant crate) to help rebuild you village" Atalla says to my father.

"Thank you" he says.

Alvis goes to untie the dragons from the crate, and opens the crate, with help from Hagen. Inside the crate is lots of wood, leather, stone, iron, and bricks. Also food and blankets have been supplied as well. The dragons play with each other, joined by Snowflake and Nightchaser. Toothless is also introduced to the group's dragons.

"Follow us. We will show you where you can set up camp" Hagen says, gesturing for me and the others to follow. When we are far enough away, Atalla starts talking.

"I noticed your brother and one of the blonde girls glance at each other, do they know?"

"Yes they do. They spied on us last night" I say.

"What?" Hagen asks. I shrug to say I've dealt with it.

"Anyways, your dress is almost done, I just hope it fits you, same with the cape you have to wear Hagen. Oh and the flowers should be beautiful, and the food and the banners and oh I am so excited!" Atalla squeaked.

"Calm down it's just a wedding" Egad says in an attempt to calm her.

"What about the blessings? If your parents don't know how will you get them?" Damon asks me.

"I will talk to them, if they listen" I say, because from what I know my father has listening issues.

"It will be fine Hunt" Alvis assures me. I nod in hope.

"So this is where you will be staying" Hagen says gesturing to the tents we've set up in the woods.

"The dragons will sleep here as well" I said as the dragons came bounding towards us.

"Hagen get them comfortable, I have to find my father and help" I say as I walk away.

Stoick P.O.V

Hunter and her friends went into the woods to set up camp. I wonder what that Alvis was talking about what is happening next week. It will be good to get any other ally, especially one further away. I see Hunter and her dragon come out of the woods. The villagers are unloading the crate. We have been working since dawn, except for the breakfast break.

"Hey Dad, come to help" Hunter says, before making the wood levitate.

"Where do you want it?" she ask me, I just stare gobsmacked. I point to a completely destroyed house and she sets it up, like a house.

"It only needs to be nailed so" she says before nails come flying form the pile and secure the wood. She drops her hands and the house stays upright.

"Tada!"

"Wow" I whisper.

"Want me to keep going?" she asks me. I nod.

She does this for around and hour, following the peoples instructions about how they want it to look. This would normally take weeks but it is taking a few hours!? I am bewildered.

"Such a good girl" Valka says from behind me.

"How can she do that?" I ask.

She shrugs "I just say she has the heart of a dragon and the soul of a Viking, while Hiccup has a soul of a dragon and a heart of a Chief" she says looking at Hunter.

"That actually makes sense" I say.

Hunter has now finished the last house, and the extra resources actually came in a lot of use. Hunter smiles then runs into the forest. That's my girl.

Hagen P.O.V

I see Hunter running through the woods, and in the time she was gone we had set up a camp fire, fed the dragons and ourselves, and set up extra tents.

We all sit down on the logs surrounding the fire and just talk. We talk about dragons, what is happening in Dreycon, Berk, Drago and all that stuff, when Hiccup, Astrid, Snotlout, Fishlegs, Eret and the twins, along with the dragons come out of the bushes.

"Can we join you?" Fishlegs asks warily.

"Sure" Hunter says with a golden smile.

They sit on the logs on the dragons start to play with each other.

"Hunter, Hagen why don't you guys sing?" suggests Atalla, handing me a guitar and Hunter a violin.

"Please!" Alvis and Damon beg.

"Pretty please!" Egad and Edgar also beg.

"Fine!" I say with a laugh, strumming the guitar. Hunter joins in on the violin.

Me:

I have a dream

You are there

High above the clouds somewhere

Rain is falling from the skies but it never touches you your way up high.

Hunter:

So no more worries no more fears

You have made them disappear

Sadness tried to steal the show

But now it feels like many years ago

Atalla and Hunter:

And I, I will be with you every step

(Violin)

Tonight, I found a friend in you

And I'll keep you close forever

Hunter and I:

Come fly with me

(Oh, oh)

Into a fantasy

(Oh, oh)

Where you can be whoever you want to be

Come fly with me

(Instrumental)

Hunter:

We can fly

All day long

Show me the world

Sing me a song

Me:

Tell me what the future holds

You and me will paint it all in gold

Hunter and Atalla:

And I, I will believe your every word

(Violin_

Cause I, I have a friend in you

We'll always stay together

Hunter and I (slow):

Come fly with me

(Oh, oh)

Into a fantasy

(Oh, oh)

Where you can be whoever you want to be

Come fly with me

Come fly with me

(Oh, oh)

Into a fantasy

(Oh, oh)

Where you can be whoever you want to be

Come fly with me!

(Instrumental)

The group breaks out in applause. Hunter smiles and blushes, I just smile.

"You sing really well sis" Hiccup complements "You too Hagen" he adds.

"How many instruments do you two know?" Fishlegs asks, getting laughs from the boys and Atalla.

"I'm surprised if they could list them all!" Alvis says with a chuckle.

"Guitar, drums, banjo, violin, viola, cello, double bass, clarinet, tuba, trombone, horn, maracas, oboe, flute, recorder, piano, and more" I state.

"Wow, I haven't even heard of half of those!" Fishlegs exclaimed.

"We'll show you next week" Hunter tells him.

"Question what is happening next week?" Tuffnut asks.

"Yeah what is this mystery event?" Ruffnut adds.

"Tell us" Snotlout demands.

Hunter shakes her head sheepishly "Can't tell ya" she says before a Terror lands on her shoulder with a note in its talons.

She takes the note out and reads it to herself. She looks confused, then understanding. What does it say?

"What does it say?" Astrid asks, mirroring my thoughts.

"Chief says that the special event is being changed to the day after tomorrow as a storm is setting in over there. That means we have to leave tomorrow to get there in time" she says, then looks at me worriedly.

"We'll make it don't worry" Atalla assures her.

"Why is this event so important to you guys?" Snotlout asks.

"You'll find out later" I say.

"We better tell Dad" Hiccup says, standing up.

Soon we are back in the village, trying to find Hunter's father. She looks worried, but Atalla is comforting her in whispers. I am not worried, it will be fine, just we will be married sooner. I can tell the others suspect something, but I am not sure what.

We tell Stoick, who says we will leave at dawn tomorrow, to make it. Dinner is approaching so he sends us to the Great Hall to eat. This village is small, but very home like and easy to get used to.

When everyone is eating dinner he makes an announcement.

"Everyone, I have news! Tomorrow at dawn, myself, Gobber, Snotlout, Fishlegs, Astrid, Ruffnut, Tuffnut, Eret, Valka, Hiccup, Hunter and our guests, will be going to the village of Dreycon for a special event. We will be there for a few days, then we will return. I am leaving Spitelout in charge" he says before joining us again to finish eating.

Hunter is silent all through dinner, and even when we head to our camp. I tell her not to worry and that it will all be fine, but I don't think she believes me. I give her a good night kiss, which she returns.

"Night. I love you" I say

"Love you too" she says, then we all go to bed.

Let's see what tomorrow holds.

The song I used is 'Into a Fantasy' by Alexander Rybak. I love this song even though it's by a Norwegian, well I think he's Norwegian. Look it up on YouTube as it's a great song. (My friends judge me for loving the song, but I think it's amazing!)
